

Hotel & Accommodations Vocabulary

Name: _____ Date: _____

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

The student will use Spanish vocabulary related to hotels and lodging in a role-play check-in scenario.

MATERIALS NEEDED

- Notebook paper
- Pencil
- Ruler
- Index cards (for a pretend hotel key/reservation card)

HANDS-ON ACTIVITY

1. Learn these hotel-related words and phrases: el hotel, la habitacion (room), la llave (key), la reserva (reservation), 'Tengo una reserva' (I have a reservation), 'Cuanto cuesta la habitacion?' (How much does the room cost?), 'con vista al mar' (with an ocean view).
2. Design a pretend hotel reservation card on an index card, including a guest name, room number, and number of nights, all labeled in Spanish.
3. Write a check-in dialogue (at least 6 lines) between a hotel guest and a front-desk worker, including the guest giving their reservation and asking about the room.
4. Practice performing the dialogue aloud, using the reservation card as a prop.
5. Draw a simple floor plan of your pretend hotel room and label 4 items in it in Spanish (example: la cama, la ventana, el bano, la television).

QUESTIONS

1. How do you say 'I have a reservation' in Spanish?
-

2. What is the Spanish word for 'room' and for 'key'?
-

3. List the 4 items you labeled in your hotel room floor plan, in Spanish.
-

4. Write one line from your check-in dialogue and its English translation.
