

Interviewing About Future Plans

Name: _____ Date: _____

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

The student will conduct a short interview in Spanish about someone's future plans and record their responses.

MATERIALS NEEDED

- paper
- pen
- a family member or friend to interview

HANDS-ON ACTIVITY

1. Write 5 interview questions in Spanish using future tense, such as: '¿Qué harás este fin de semana?', '¿Adónde viajarás algún día?', '¿Qué estudiarás en el futuro?'
2. Practice reading your 5 questions out loud in Spanish until you can say them smoothly.
3. Interview a family member or friend, asking your 5 questions in Spanish (translating for them if needed) and writing down their answers, encouraging them to answer using future tense if possible (or writing your best translation of their answer into future-tense Spanish).
4. Review your notes and write out all 5 question-and-answer pairs neatly in Spanish.
5. Circle every future-tense verb that appears across your 5 answers.

QUESTIONS

1. Write your 5 interview questions in Spanish.
-

2. Write one of the answers you recorded, in Spanish.
-

3. How many future-tense verbs did you find across all 5 answers, and list 2 of them.
-

4. What was one challenge you faced while conducting this interview in Spanish?
-
