

Capstone: Community Service Reflection & Presentation

Name: _____ Date: _____

LEARNING OBJECTIVE

The student will present the outcomes of their quarter-long community service project and reflect on their growth in civic responsibility.

MATERIALS NEEDED

- all materials/documentation from Weeks 1-5 service project
- poster board or paper
- markers
- photos if available

HANDS-ON ACTIVITY

1. Gather your needs assessment (Week 1), project plan (Weeks 2 and 4), and execution notes/photos (Week 5) together.
2. Create a capstone summary poster or page with 4 sections: The Need, The Plan, The Action Taken, and The Impact.
3. Include at least one specific number or measurable result in your Impact section (e.g., pounds of litter collected, items donated, people helped, dollars raised).
4. Practice presenting your capstone summary aloud in under 3 minutes.
5. Present your community service capstone to a family member, then write a final reflection on what you learned about civic responsibility this quarter.

QUESTIONS

1. What need did your project address, and what specific action did you take?

2. What measurable result or number best represents your project's impact?

3. What was the most valuable lesson you learned from planning and carrying out a real community service project, compared to just learning about civic responsibility from a book?

4. Looking back at this whole quarter — from mapping community needs in Week 1 to presenting your impact today — how has your understanding of civic responsibility changed?
